Unemployment Benefits	$
State Disability Benefits	$

5. Did you or your spouse (if married/remarried) received any CASH SUPPORT from anyone?

- NO – Continue to question #6
 YES – Enter the amount of cash support received for each applicable item in the chart on page 3

The student reports any cash support received, but if dependent does not count parental support, with one exception: money from a non-custodial parent that is not part of a legal child support agreement is untaxed income to the student. Cash support includes: money, gifts, and loans, plus housing, food, clothing, car payments or expenses, medical and dental care, college costs, and money paid by someone else on your behalf. For example, if a friend or relative pays your electric bill or part of your rent, you must report the amount as untaxed income. If you are living with a friend who pays the rent and your (student) name is on the lease, the rent paid on your behalf counts as cash support because you are responsible for payments that your friend is making.

Exclude in-kind support: which is other than money, for example, friends or relatives giving you (student) food or allowing you to live with them rent-free.

(Enter $0 for each item if no cash support was received)
